

CIPEG Statement 2017

In light of the current atmosphere of mutual suspicion, museums should promote a dialogue that contributes to overcoming the acute contrasts based on identity and religion that may lead to the destruction of heritage perpetuated by intolerance. CIPEG can facilitate this dialogue by welcoming diverse audiences to better appreciate the cultures of Egypt and Sudan. CIPEG supports freedom of research and exchange of ideas for which travel to and from these countries is essential.